YOM KIPPUR — A DAY, BUT IS THERE ATONEMENT FOR THE JEWISH SOUL?

By Jon Lieberman, Carmel, IN

ATONEMENT? What is it, why does a Jewish person need it, and how does one receive it? The probing question is this — “What does God require of the Jewish person before God can forgive the individual’s sins and be able, then, to inscribe his or her name in the Book of Life?”

The Jewish community will celebrate, beginning Sunday evening, September 27, what the Jewish Bible (the Tanach) calls Yom Kippur, The Day of Atonement. Jewish tradition teaches that God writes the name of every repentant Jew in this legendary divine record book.

Does the Jewish Bible, which is the only divine authority for Jewish belief, confirm such a practice? To answer that question we must turn to the ancient Jewish Scriptures themselves.

The Scriptures state that Aaron, Israel’s Kohen Ha-Gadol, (the Great High Priest) was commanded to kill once a year a goat and then sprinkle its blood upon an altar in a sacred area of the Temple called The Holy of Holies. (The Kiddush Kiddushim). The Bible emphatically states the reason, “It is the blood that makes atonement for the soul” (Lev. 17:11). No fasting, or time of prayer, or charitable gift could replace the need for this sacrificial blood!

The Bible also instructed Aaron to lay hands upon a living goat (called the scapegoat), confess Israel’s sins over that goat, and then send it off into the wilderness to die.

We learn 4 things from this ritual:

1. Aaron made atonement for the people, indicating that the people needed a mediator to represent them before God.
2. An innocent victim, in this case an animal, had to be killed for them — represented by the sprinkled blood.
3. A scapegoat was designated to symbolically take away their sins.
4. Each Jewish person had to put their faith in this procedure in order to receive atonement. (Read Leviticus, Chapters 16 & 17).

I pose two simple questions to my people —

“Where is the blood today?” and “Who represents as a mediator my Jewish people to God?” The usual answer is that in 70 C.E. the Romans destroyed the 2nd Temple and the Rabbis decided to restructure Judaism without a sacrificial system and thus arbitrarily substituted fasting, prayer, charity, and repentance to take the place of the blood sacrifice.

But has God abandoned substitutionary sacrificial atonement as the only basis upon which a Jew can receive forgiveness of sins? Isaiah, a Jewish prophet writing about 720 B.C.E., predicted that a suffering servant would one day die for Israel’s sins. Isaiah wrote:

“...he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities...we all, like sheep, have gone astray and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all...he bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors” (See Isaiah, Chapter 53).

The Rabbis have debated for centuries the identity of this servant. The prophet Jeremiah (600 B.C.E.) even predicted that this Messiah/servant would establish a new covenant with Israel. (Jer. 31:31-34)

2000 years ago a humble Jewish rabbi stunned Israel claiming to be that servant and literally fulfilled that prophecy! He carried out God’s eternal plan and became the atoning sacrifice by dying for the sins of His people. He was the Kohen Ha-Gadol who mediates redemption to the Jewish soul. He claimed both divinity and that He was the Messiah of Israel. He performed miracles of healing on thousands of Jewish people. Three days after his death He was miraculously raised up from the dead (revealing the visible nail wounds in his hands) and appeared ALIVE to hundreds of Jewish people. This same Jesus promised to return a second time to this world! His Hebrew name is:

“Yeshua HaMashiach” (Jesus the Messiah)

Why speculate any more about whether your name has been inscribed in The Book of Life? The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob really loves you and offers the forgiveness of sins, eternal life, and entrance into heaven only to those who trust that Jesus’ death was the final Yom Kippur, the last Day of Atonement. Jesus said, “I am the way, and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father but through Me.” Won’t you come to Him today and receive ETERNAL LIFE?

You can say this prayer to God and ask for forgiveness and God will hear you:

“DEAR GOD OF ABRAHAM, ISAAC & JACOB, I know that I have sinned and need Your forgiveness. I believe that I can’t find acceptance before YOU based on my good works (mitzvot). I can’t earn my way to heaven. I did not realize until now that Yeshua is my Jewish Messiah and suffered and made atonement for me 2000 years ago. I believe that Yeshua died for my sins, in my place, on that tree. I believe that he physically rose from the dead. The Tanakh says that If I call upon the name of the Lord, I will be saved and delivered from God’s judgment. I want to experience today this transforming new life in the Messiah. With a sincere heart I do call out to You now to forgive me, to welcome me into your kingdom. I receive by faith the gift of eternal life now, and I surrender the control of my life over to You from this moment on. Thank you God. Amen.”
